Reading and Writing

We will be looking closely at Kenya, as it is the setting for our key text; 'Lila and the Secret of Rain'.

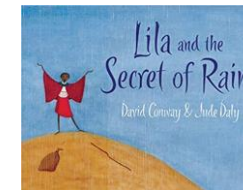

Non-Fiction

We will be finding out how information books are different to story books. We will be thinking about what a fact is. We will present information in a poster and make our own information book about Kenya

We will use books, first hand experiences and the internet to research places around the globe that we would like to visit.

Fiction

Lila lives in a Kenyan village where they wish it would rain as a drought is causing their crops to fail. Lila discovers a secret to make the rain come. But, does she save her village?

We will be looking closely at character's motivations and feelings in the story. We will be retelling the story and writing descriptions of how characters are feeling.

Grammar and Punctuation Focus

We will be writing a series of accurate sentences that make sense and include:

Capital letters Full stops

Question marks
